Based in Vancouver, BC, ProLab Health and Beauty Ltd. stands out as a premier private label manufacturer of health & beauty products. Boasting over 150 years of collective team expertise, ProLab's GMP-compliant facility empowers customers by bringing their product visions from conception to fruition.

Challenge

Working within the confines of narrow margins and rigorous cost management, President Jonathan Langman emphasized the need for an affordable yet feature-intensive system. The system needed to aid in order management, inventory control, costing, and manufacturing, especially given the criticality of lot number control and stringent quality assurance standards in the nutraceutical industry.

Why Aquilon ERP?

After assessing multiple ERP systems and conducting in-house tests, ProLab's decision veered towards Aquilon software. Aquilon's commitment to ensuring a perfect fit was evident during their presentations, fostering trust.

Aquilon's ERP emerged as the prime choice, offering the features ProLab desired without stretching their budget. Jonathan lauds its user-centric interface, flexibility to tailor data queries, and the convenience of easy data extraction into Excel or crafting PDF reports.

Outcome

Since the integration of Aquilon's ERP, ProLab has observed marked improvements:

Manufacturing Efficiencies:
Automation and enhanced visibility have bolstered production processes.

Inventory Management:
The system deftly differentiates between company-owned and customer-owned inventory. This clarity has proved invaluable in inventory tracking and management.

Costing Automation:
With the Product Definition system, ProLab has bid adieu to traditional spreadsheets, achieving a significant
